THE MAYORALTY.

WOOD DEMONSTRATION IN TAMMANY.

Speeches of Hon. John Mosly, Hon. John Cochrane, Hon. Mr. Banks, of Virginia, and others.

A County ratification meeting of the Democracy was held last evening at Tammany Hall, the purpose being to endorse the nomination of FERNANDO WOOD for re-election to the Mayoralty. The Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the enthusiasm was unbounded. Mayor WOOD, on his entrance, was received with three cheers, and the whole audience rose to their feet, and remained standing for several minutes, cheering and waving their hats and handkerchiefs. The cheering was renewed again and again, and it was some time before the meeting could be organized.

On motion of Hon. JOHN MOSLY, Hon. JOHN COCHRANE was called to the Chair, and on taking the seat was received with cheers.

On motion of Hon. JOHN MOSLY, Hon. Mr. BANKS, of Virginia, was appointed Secretary.

The CHAIRMAN said: Fellow-citizens, we are assembled here to-night for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of FERNANDO WOOD for Mayor of this City. [Cheers.] I am sure that I express the sentiments of every Democrat present when I say that we are proud of the opportunity of meeting our fellow-citizens to-night, and of ratifying the nomination of a man who has proved himself the friend of the people, and who has shown himself capable of administering the affairs of this City with honesty, economy, and ability

Crime in New-York—Startling Views of City Corruption.

[From the Times.]

Can you tell a poor fellow, living in the country, why he is held at so cheap a rate? How we manage to live? Why, we don't. Our expenses are much exceeded by our receipts. Our children are growing up without education, and we are ashamed to send them to school. Our clothes are worn out, and we are ashamed to buy new ones. Our wives are broken-hearted, and we have not the heart to cheer them. Our farms are mortgaged, and we have not the means to improve them. Our cattle are poor, and we have not the money to buy better. Our sheep are scabby, and we have not the dip to cure them. Our pigs are lousy, and we have not the pork to fatten. Our horses are galled, and we have not the shoeing to cure them. Our barns are leaky, and we have not the boards to mend them. Our fences are broken down, and we have not the rails to repair them. Our children are crying for bread, and we have not the money to buy it. Our hearts are breaking, and we have not the courage to end it. Why don't we sell out? Because we have not the money to pay the debts we owe. Why don't we run away? Because we have not the money to pay our passage. Why don't we go to the Legislature? Because we have not the money to pay our board. Why don't we petition for relief? Because we have not the money to pay for the printing. Why don't we write to the Governor? Because we have not the money to pay postage. Why don't we go to the Governor? Because we have not the money to pay our fare. Why don't we go to the Senate? Because we have not the money to pay our board. Why don't we go to the Assembly? Because we have not the money to pay our board. Why don't we go to the Convention? Because we have not the money to pay our board. Why don't we go to the Judges? Because we have not the money to pay our fees. Why don't we go to the Lawyers? Because we have not the money to pay our fees. Why don't we go to the Sheriff? Because we have not the money to pay our fees. Why don't we go to the Jail? Because we have not the money to pay our board. Why don't we go to the Poor-house? Because we have not the money to pay our board. Why don't we go to the Grave? Because we have not the money to pay our fees. Why don't we go to Heaven? Because we have not the money to pay our fees. Why don't we go to Hell? Because we have not the money to pay our fees. Why don't we go to the Devil? Because we have not the money to pay our fees. Why don't we go to the Devil? Because we have not the money to pay our fees. Why don't we go to the Devil

MARKET REPORTS.

Markets...Carefully reported for the New-York Times
New-York, Monday, Nov. 23—P. M.

RECEIPTS OF PRODUCE—Since Noon of Saturday, 27 cars Flour, 10,000 bushels of wheat, 4,000 bushels of Corn, 5,000 bushels of Barley, 850 packages of Provisions, 200 bbls. Whisky, 63 bbls. Molasses, 60 bbls. Oil Cake.

ASHES—Pots are quiet, but quoted steady. Pearls are dull and nominal.

BOOTS AND SHOES—The Boston market has not improved during the week. The demand for California is good, and no notice more disposition to ship to that market than is now the case. For the rest, but the New-England trade is very dull, and the orders for goods from the South and West have been quite limited. In the manufacturing districts there is also very little improvement. Some few manufacturers, who have the means, are taking advantage of the low prices at which stock can now be obtained, say from 50 cents to one dollar less than the prices quite for a year or two past, and are preparing themselves for a Spring business. The decline in leather and labor has been such that it looks certainly like a safe operation to manufacture a large amount of goods, especially as there are many indications of a speedy revival of trade. The following statement at the Boston Custom-House has been sent us:

	1857.	1856.
